Viewers Guide

by Joanne Tomaselli, Editor-in-Chief

Athena proudly exhibits, during June, 1960, on the main floor of Essex High, her first prize winners "Senior Portrait." Her "Portfolio" is available too for all to see, wherein is found the sketches she has made of her trips, dances, achievements, and skill.

Only three short years ago she was a novice, all thumbs with no knowledge of lines, angles, or paints. However, she persevered, and her sketch "Freshmen Testing" received fourth prize.

Fulfilling the academic requirements, she proved that her talent deserved third prize for "Sophomore Careers."

Specializing in the field of her choice, Athena acquired a mature understanding of skill and technical know-how. Her painting of "Junior Prom Gown" won second prize.

Keeping her membership in the "Artists' Clubs" in good-standing was no easy task, but all work and no play was not part of her past.

Athena had a constant reminder for the need of self-improvement, in her post-high years, by observing the meritorious award winning poster "Adult Ventures."

To The Graduates

During your years at Essex High, we have tried to help you complete the "portrait" of yourself. We attempted to add the color of worthwhile habits, the various shadings of good character, and lines of the necessary skills needed to complete your finished portrait.

Now our task is completed and the future is in your hands. As you enter your chosen vocations, remember not only the happy memories we have shared; but also the ideals and standards of Essex High.

May I wish you every success, happiness, and the satisfaction of a job well done.

*In our hearts there is a picture,
Shining bright and true,
It's a picture of our high school,
Our Dear Gold and Blue.*

*For your honor we shall struggle
On the Road of Fame
Gratefully, dear Essex High School
Singing loud your name.*

*Though the years that go before us,
Dim our memory,
Recollections of our school days,
There will always be.*

DRIVER EDUCATION

As a Junior the "Do's and Don'ts" of driving were drilled upon. Learning the car's mechanics and operations was part of theory-training in the classroom. Thanks to Miss Veenstra, the State Drivers' Examination was less difficult, because of the constant practice on proper interpretation of road signs and reflex testing on the Reflex Timer.

In our Senior year, we drove "the" car, applying all of the theory we had learned. Under the expert direction of Mr. Stanziale, our driving instructor, we learned to relax and gain more confidence as we drove.

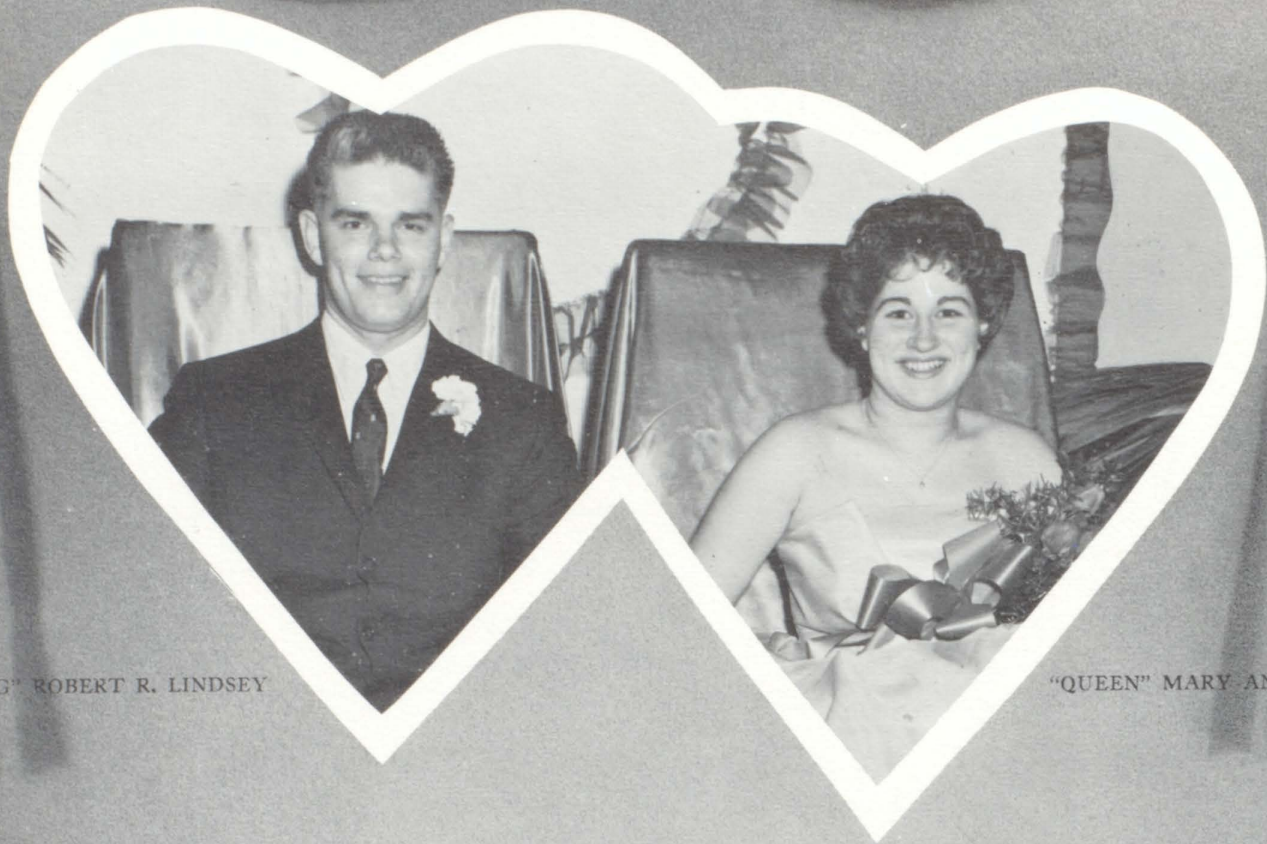

*Remember, this is your final lesson before the road test—Good luck!
All wrapped up in her first-aid lesson.*

HOMEROOM FACULTY

Technical Secretary Juniors

Janeen Bethke and Mary Carolla join Lorraine Caputo and Stephanie Carr in that all important—dictation.

When it comes to "blueprints" three heads are better than one, so say Edith Caruso, Judith Casiero, and Dolores Cioffi.

"We'll start the assignment on page 67, girls, be sure to proofread carefully," says Mrs. Kantrowitz, to Pat La Bue and Joanne Ferrari, standing, and Anna Beevers, Sandra Bergamo, Vinnie Lopomo, Catherine Brodo, Doris Gaestel, and Verna Newcomer seated.

Social science is closely related with the community life of a T.S. student. Front: Michele Maniscalco, Eileen Luango, Gloria Luciano, Patricia Mason. Rear: Antoinette Kudick, Patricia Grady.

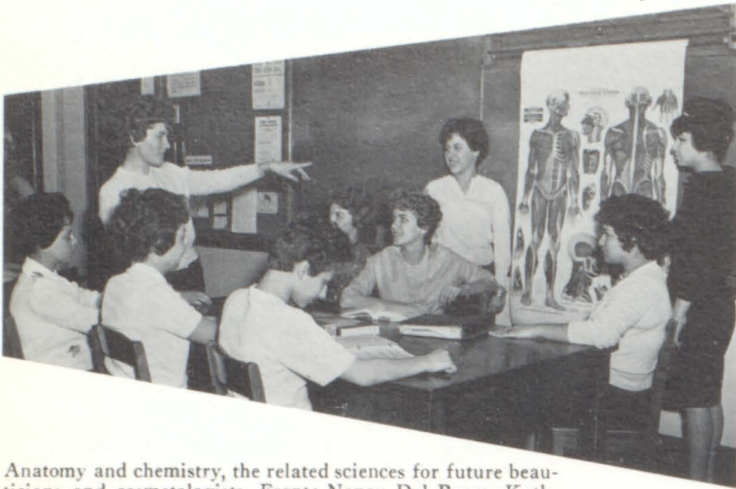

Office procedures are regularly scheduled for T.S. training. Front: Lenore San Giacona. Rear: Diane Ventola, Janice Rippel, Elizabeth Politan, Patricia Pheder.

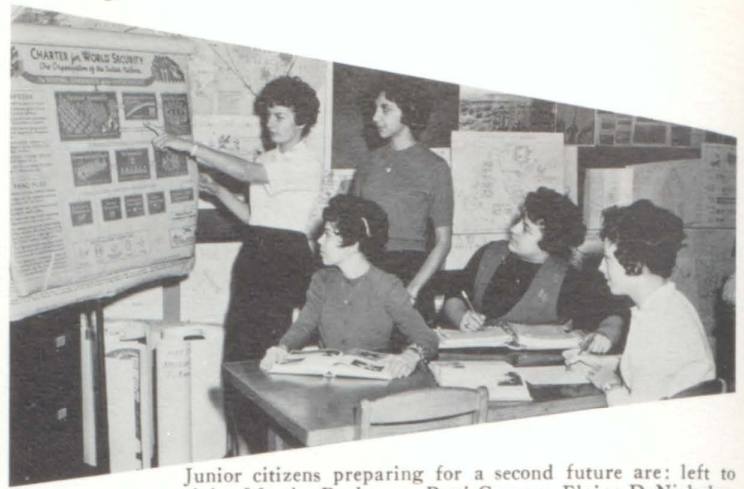

Brunhilda Gauss operates the bookkeeping machine as Kathleen Flynt checks her progress. In the rear, Phyllis Fucci and Dolores De Vito combine their efforts on a Sensimatic.

Beauty Culture Juniors

Anatomy and chemistry, the related sciences for future beauticians and cosmetologists. Front: Nancy Del Russo, Katherine Diacovo, Lucille Nilio. Rear: Rita Tomasino, Marjorie Langman, Bertha Lizza, Mary Ricigliano, Carole Petrocco, Mary Ann Guinta.

Theory is a must for those "swirl" pin-curls, and Mrs. Ambrose so informs her class. Front: Winifred Dominie, Winifred Gilhooly, Geraldine Di Rocco. Rear: Louise Afflito, Priscilla Butler, Theresa Giordano, Marie Campenella, Dolores Chirichello.

Angela Lopreato and Charlotte Frable are selecting the proper book for research, while Joanne Torre and Elaine Then have settled for a scheduled period of relaxation.

Theory comes to life when the B.C. girls apply shop principles. Standing: Mary Price, Norma Oakerson, Angela Semenoro. Seated: Ellen Potts, Ann Quaresimo, Gloria Petkavich.

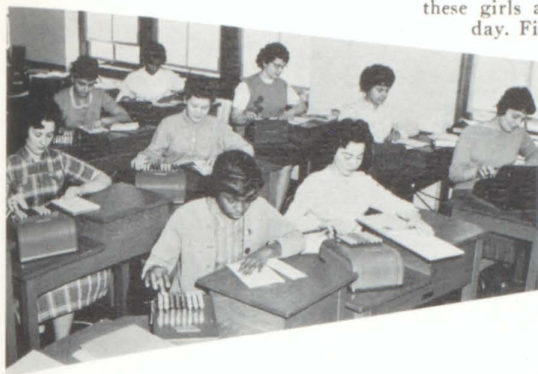

All phases of the beauty shop are practiced daily by the future beautician. Clockwise: Jo Ann Gonzalez, Patricia Torsell, Ellen Murrin, Helen Snizek, Grace Murray, Jo Ann Tedesco, Elaine Mulholland, Lucille Domenick.

Business Machine Juniors

Culture is a vital part in developing the "whole" student, and enjoying this period of learning while relaxing are, clockwise: Lorreta De Geiso, Joann De Bellis, Anita Apostolico, Marie Napoli, Gilberte Nohan, Karen MacRae, Josephine Lento, Arlene Montebello.

Keeping up with the latest novels and method texts are: Janet Aiello, Diane Domogauer, Angela Palmieri, Linda Raft, Concetta Piegaro, Judy Turzy. Standing: Casmira Navrotski, Diane Petolino, Carol De Cessare.

Perplexing as the subject may be, the B.M. student has a daily "dose" of economics. Front: Josephine Del Guercio, Margret Addotta, Sandra Iacoves, Diana Gurrera. Rear: Barbara Alfano, Lynda Albanese, Dorothy Chapko, Mary Ann Gerardi, Theresa Healey, Barbara Buonocore.

Dressmaking and Design Juniors

Art is a basic course for a Dressmaking-Design student. Enjoying this course are: Elizabeth Smith, Anna Maione, Joyce Gocklin, Mary Craig, Jo Ann Balla, Annie Grant.

Cutting and basting are the first steps in the making of a garment. Left side: Cecelia Trevaskiss, Kathleen Schwindt, Joan Spiers. Right side: Ella Reid, Rita Roscoe, Phyllis Possumato, Marietta Natiello.

A picture of precision is Mary Craig, as she guides her material beneath the needle.

A skill in "miniature" is this course in the technique of costuming, which is being performed by: Marion Gaeta, Eleanor Risikoff, Nilda Lopez, Anna Marie Panicucci.

Commercial Art Juniors

Pat Denman and Agnes Drake are enjoying a relaxed moment before continuing their scheduled assignments.

Food Service Juniors

Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Ferret, Marie Calovito and Ruth Ann Hamilton serve a Food Service classmate, Eleanor Ross, the "main" for lunch.

Student

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our organization, under the supervision of Mrs. Lehman, consists of homeroom representatives who meet once every month with their six Student Council officers. We are particularly proud of the democratic manner in which our council functions. All elections are by secret ballot. The responsibility for the success of all dances is assumed by the committees. Participation in all recreational facilities by the students during the school day is under the supervision of committee chairmen, usually the school officers.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

This committee informs the students about school functions. The girls work during their lunch hours on posters to advertise the dances and holidays and, also, publish a welcome sheet for the new Freshmen. Phyllis Caruso, Janice Rippel, Martha Celeste, Genevieve Del Guercio, Chairman; Diane Mandato, Lucille Gaeta, Josephine Iannucci, Pat Carangelo.

Improving the appearance and service of our cafeteria are the main functions of this committee. The girls, without teacher supervision, perform their duties in a most effective manner.

CAFETERIA COMMITTEE

Council

Grace and Josephine are keeping the platters spinning.

Our halls and rooms are shining examples of the work done by these girls. They check the building with a sharp eye for carelessness and untidiness, and also arrange furniture for pictures—their's.

SAFETY COMMITTEE

With the cooperation of everyone, this committee has prevented many accidents. These girls help students to form straight lines in the cafeteria and check girls from running in the halls and on the stairs.

RECREATION COMMITTEE

All the students thank the girls on this committee because of their help towards our lunch period enjoyment. These girls are in charge of the records for dancing in the gym and the recreation facilities in the game room.

HOUSEKEEPING COMMITTEE

Terry keeps a "safety eye" on the girls as they go by.

DRAMA CLUB

The trip to New York, dinner and a show, and at least two assembly programs—these are the highlights of the Drama Club.

For 1959-60 the Club has presented "The Halloween Husband," "A Christmas Promise," and "Spring Performance." First row: Diane Rufalo, Shiela Spear, Carole Navrowski, Jean Navrowski, Diana Dunn, Jean Leta Giordano, Theresa Rozsa, Michele Fabiano, Florence Rose.

Janice Rippel and Deborah Dontas check Kodak awards.

CIVIC CLUB

A kind of "first" in our many extra curricular activities is this group.

During the year the girls have visited the children's home as Red Cross representatives, assembled a variety of wearing apparel and toys for the Homeroom's "Christmas Child," entered the Kodak contest, and helped to judge and arrange the local community's "Halloween Parade" at the Roseville Armory.

Janet, Elizabeth, Pat, Mary, Mary, Josephine, and Antoinette had a grand time on Halloween.

A visit that Sarah, Mary Ann, and Grace will never forget.

GLEE CLUB

Under the skillful direction of Miss Dooley, the girls became elements of vocal sound.

The Christmas program, a high spot of the year, was as merry as a holly wreath, and as nostalgic as a Christmas tree.

Throughout the year, the Glee Club presents a most entertaining program for students and charitable organizations, on occasions like Parents' Night, Thanksgiving, Easter, and Open House.

BOOKWORM OFFICERS

Senior Bookworms lead the way when it comes to shelving, checking-out books, mending books, and writing out those "overdue-slips."

JUNIOR BOOKWORMS

One of the largest and most important student organizations in our school is the library club, appropriately called "Bookworms."

Miss Lehman and her library trainees faithfully serve the school. They keep the students well informed on the latest books and assist the girls in locating information for research projects. Just ask a "Bookworm" and she will come up with the information.

Each member serves on a committee, which keeps the library running smoothly. Checking returned books, reading the shelves, binding and covering magazines, collecting fines on overdue books, and making attractive displays and bulletin boards make this a busy group.

Along with scheduled meetings and parties, the club visits the Trenton State Teachers College annual library convention.

GYM

It takes inches off the hips.

An alert mind is complimented by a healthy body. During the four years at Essex High, we strived to keep ourselves in excellent physical condition. The routine exercises were given by our instructor, Mrs. Riley, in a gentle but persuasive manner. Sportsmanship is an asset, and we had many opportunities to cultivate this characteristic, while participating in the various games between "shop" classes.

Questions & Answers about a

Telephone Career

Q. Why is the Phone Company a good place to work?

A. Telephone work is important work—vital to the community—and it offers you good starting pay, attractive hours, liberal benefits.

Q. What sort of openings are there?

A. There are many opportunities. Growing telephone service creates an ever-greater need for operators, customer-contact people, stenographers, clerks and many others.

Q. How about advancement?

A. You can expect frequent raises—with a chance to qualify for supervisory positions, if you show yourself capable of moving up.

Q. Are there other reasons why I'd like working for the Phone Company?

A. Many. You'll meet lots of interesting people of your own age—enjoy frequent company-planned social activities—work in pleasant, modern surroundings.

Q. How can I find out more about opportunities for a Telephone Career?

A. Just see your Vocational Guidance Director. Why not do it today?

SPECIALIZING IN SCHOOL AND COLLEGE YEARBOOKS FOR OVER THIRTY YEARS

Acknowledgments

The staff of the 1960 ATHENA wishes to thank the following for their invaluable aid in the production of our Yearbook:

MISS JOHANNA ALLMANNBERGER who so willingly gave her time and assistance to all phases of our publication.

MR. THOMAS BIGLIN, with the help of the Financial Committee, worked so diligently on all financial matters.

MRS. DOLLY KELLEY and members of her department, for the creative art work contributed to Athena.

MISS MARIE IADIPAOLI whose time was spent with the Advertising Committee in an effort to obtain advertisers.

MRS. DAISY LEHMAN, who helped the graduates write their blurbs.

MRS. ROBERTINA RILEY who arranged for all the "Senior Portraits."

MR. RICHARD WALLACE and his capable committee, for conducting the Booster campaign so successfully.

MR. JAMES LEITH and his staff who handled the Magazine campaign and all its finances so capably.

MR. NICHOLAS ICKES, of Ickes Annuals, who advised us, both as a friend and business associate, so that we could have the best possible yearbook.

THE LORSTAN STUDIOS who did the beautiful photography in this book.

THE FACULTY, FRIENDS, AND STUDENTS who generously supported Athena during the magazine sale.

THE BUSINESS CONCERNS AND PATRONS whose donations and advertisements made the Yearbook possible.

The Editor-in-Chief wishes to express her personal "thank you" to the very capable and inspiring Yearbook staff. Without their help, the immense job of producing this book could never have been accomplished.
