Kelvin Marshall had 14 points and 12 rebounds to lead Newark Tech to a 55-53 come from behind victory over Newark East Side in Newark.

Gavin Moses scored 21 points for Newark Tech (2-2), which trailed by six at the half, but used an 18-11 fourth quarter to snap a 10-game losing streak against Newark East Side and give the Terriers their first win against their rival since the 2013 NJSIAA Tournament of Champions. Freshman Khalil Sanders added 11 points in the win.
